VI. CAUSE OF ACTION

Brief Description:

Plaintiffs bring this federal civil rights and tort action against Meriter Hospital and affiliated staff for egregious violations of constitutional rights, medical negligence, and insurance fraud including:

- Falsely documenting an HIV diagnosis without consent, notification, or basis.
- Falsifying a gestational diabetes test the plaintiff never consented to or completed, creating fraudulent billing for insurance.
- Denying plaintiff a birth plan despite a high-risk pregnancy and PICC line.
- Stealing and failing to document the disposition of the placenta post-birth, with no consent or explanation.
- Committing psychological and physical harm through mismanagement, coercive care, and gross neglect.

Claims arise under the U.S. Constitution (14th Amendment – due process, equal protection), the ADA, and federal and state medical laws concerning informed consent and patient rights.
